Users can renew the loan for most documents of RERO-libraries for two additional loan periods. For subsequent renewals please contact the library at which the original loan request was made. You can check whether it is possible to renew the loan via your patron folder.

In case of overdue documents and fees, the regulations of the library which owns the document in question apply.

Lost or damaged documents must be replaced by the borrower.

The loan of documents is strictly personal and the user is personally liable for any documents borrowed.

Acceptance of any document constitutes acceptance of these conditions.
